Summary

Donald C. Mitchell, an assistant manager at the Family Dollar, contacted police regarding an attempted shoplifting of laundry detergent. Mitchell advised a thin black male approximately six foot tall came into the store with a juvenile and while leaving attempted to steal laundry detergent. Mitchell recovered the product before the suspect could flee the seen. Mitchell stated after the product was recovered that the juvenile went on the side of the building an urinated. Mitchell was unable to provide surveillance footage due to being unable to access the CCTV unit. Mitchell was advised of his options.
