NARR	07/22/2015 20:18	CALLER REPORTS HEARING A MALE YELLING FOR HELP IN AREA. UNSURE OF LOCATION.	jdebski
NARR	11/28/2017 10:09	Patrols were dispatched to 64 Mill Street on a report of a male yelling for help. Upon our arrival bystanders indicated the yelling was coming from apartment #3. Patrols initially were unable to gain entry into the building because of the main door being locked. Someone yelling for help was still heard from the upstairs apartment. The main door was forced open by patrol due to the concern of safety for whomever appeared to be in distress. Patrol then gained access to the apartment and found Pope holding onto Litrenta from the waste and Litrenta was crying. Both parties were immediately separated. Litrenta was escorted downstairs. After further investigation it was confirmed that Litrenta came over Pope's residence to discuss their dating relationship. While Pope and Litrenta were talking Pope grabbed Litrenta's phone and would not give it back. Because of that both parties got into a verbal argument. During the argument Litrenta told Pope that if he did not give her the phone back she was going to jump out o	system

Litrenta then ran towards the window broke the screen and attempted to jump out. Pope immediately grabbed her by her waist for her safety. He did not let go of her and began to yell for help. Litrenta admitted to wanting to jump out of the window to hurt herself because of the breaking of their relationship. There was no evidence of any d/v that occurred. Due to the concern of Litrenta's state of mind and safety she was advised that she should speak to someone at NMC in regards to a psychological evaluation. She complied and was transported to NMC without incident. Paper check on both parties was conducted and came back negative.	system

NARR	06/19/2018 15:50	Patrols responded to 64 Mill Street for the report of a disorderly male that had left the area. Upon arrival, patrols spoke with Tina Cipiloglu, who is the mother of Edward Todd. She advised that Todd had allegedly messed up the whole inside of the apartment by flipping furniture over. She said he was not on scene and had left for work at Exxon on Water St. According to Cipiloglu, Todd was upset at her for not waking him up on time for work. Cipiloglu said Todd has an anger problem and needs help. After conversing with her husband over the phone, Cipiloglu requested that she apply for a TRO against Todd. She said she had one against him once before. Due to her request, I transported her to Family Court. Prior to dropping her off, she advised that she was not home at the time of the alleged incident, but his friend Breann August was. Cipiloglu said that August called her when the incident transpired and then she directed August to call the police. She said the alleged incident occurred around 2/215pm.	JZAPPA

Ptl. Flanagan located Todd at the Exxon and spoke with him. Todd told Ptl. Flanagan that nothing happened. When asked about the furniture, he said that he couldn't find his phone and was looking for it. I returned back to 64 Mill St and spoke with August. I asked her if anything was done to her and she said no. I also asked if she wanted to make any complaints and she said no. There were no indications of any altercation or fight between August and Todd. She again reiterated that he was just made at his mom for not waking him up. She just wants Todd to get the help he needs.

Based on what we were told, it did not appear a DV had occurred.

NARR	06/23/2018 18:50	911 CALLER REPORTS HER EX BOYFRIEND BROKE INTO HER APARTMENT AND STOLE JEWELRY, CLOTHING AND SOME OTHER ITEMS.	SLOGAN
NARR	06/23/2018 23:59	Upon arrival at the scene, patrols met with the complainant, Brianne August. She advised that her ex-boyfriend, Edward Todd, had entered the residence she is staying at and took diamonds and pearls in addition to $100.00 from her dresser. There is an active TRO against Todd returning to the residence. August was reminded that it was established through questioning on an earlier call that she was never in a dating relationship with Todd. August stated that her neighbor, Cammy Krasnichan, observed Todd entering the residence. Patrol spoke to Krasnichan who denied making the observation. August then stated that Todd had entered through her bedroom window and took the above items last night. She made this discovery when she returned from dinner at approximately 8:00pm last night. She stated that she did not report the incident because she was going out to the bars, but that she did inform the resident, Tina Cipiloglu, who allows her to stay there. Patrol noted to August that her window is approximately 20 feet from the ground and that the screen automatically locks. No pry marks were observed on the window, screen, or front door. I spoke to Cipiloglu who stated that she was not informed by August last night of the incident, nor has she ever seen diamonds or pearls in her room on the dresser. I informed August that the above multiple contradictions and lack of corroborating evidence does not substantiate her claim of Burglary. August's demeanor was calm and she thanked me for my efforts.	mwolanski

NARR	07/18/2018 13:13	Patrol responded and spoke with Tina Cipiloglu who advised that she has a TRO against her son, Edward Todd. Cipiloglu explained that Todd's girlfriend Breann August called her and asked Cipiloglu for money. I asked Cipiloglu if August indicated that she was calling her to relay a message from her son Todd. Cipiloglu explained that August only called to ask for money because she wants to stay another night at the Econo Lodge. I contacted August to confirm if what Cipiloglu stated was accurate. August explained to me that she called Cipiloglu because she is in need for money and she also wanted to retrieve her items which are located at Cipiloglu residence. Patrols determined that no violation of a restraining order had occurred. Newton PD HQ also advised that NJETRO does not display an active TRO.	esperling

NARR	07/28/2019 03:24	Upon arrival, a dog could be heard barking in the apartment. There were two windows which made the barks louder. It appeared that no one was home in the apartment, as no one answered the door. The resident is Kaitlin Trudgeon. There were numerous shoes outside of the door, so it does appear that someone still lives there. There were no neighbors home at this time to inquire about the tenant or the dog. It appears that the building itself is under construction. A message was left with the property manager. Dayshift to be advised and follow-up.	tmuller
