REQUEST FOR RECORDS UNDER THE COMMON LAW

If, in addition to requesting records under OPRA, you are also requesting the government records under the common law, please check the box below.

A public record under the common law is one required by law to be kept, or necessary to be kept in the discharge of a duty imposed by law, or directed by law to serve as a memorial and evidence of something written, said, or done, or a written memorial made by a public officer authorized to perform that function, or a writing filed in a public office. The elements essential to constitute a public record are that it be a written memorial, that it be made by a public officer, and that the officer be authorized by law to make it.

☐ Yes, I am also requesting the documents under common law.

If the information requested is a "public record" under common law and the requestor has a legally recognized interest in the subject matter contained in the material, then the material must be disclosed if the individual's right of access outweighs the State's interest in preventing disclosure.

Please set forth your interest in the subject matter contained in the requested material:

Note that any challenge to a denial of a request for records under the common law cannot be made to the Government Records Council, as the Government Records Council only has jurisdiction to adjudicate challenges to denials of OPRA requests. A challenge to the denial of access under the common law can be made by filing an action in Superior Court.

When it comes to the individuals I need: date of births, addresses, (something so I can narrow down the search.)

Narrative:

Narrative
On the above date and time, while assigned to RC#45, I was dispatched to 22 Wadsworth Terrace for report a suspicious incident. The caller claimed 3 individuals were in the woods behind his home. When I arrived on scene I was able to locate (3) adults in the woods behind the residence. I directed the three persons to exit the woods and I began to speak with them. The three individuals, identified as Joshua Dechillo, Nicholas Santos and Vincent Concina explained that they were "just going for a walk." While speaking with them I detected and odor of burnt marijuana emanating from their persons. I conducted a search of each of their persons for contraband due to the odor providing negative results.
