Narrative

Dispatched for a report of illegal dumping at 4 Locust Lane.

Responsible LEO:

Approved by:

Supplement

On 02/27/21 at 12:25 hours Sgt. Schaal, and I (Ptl. Lugo) responded to 4 Locust Lane for a report of illegal dumping. Upon my arrival I spoke to the caller (Michael Hammerstone) who stated his neighbor Derrick Richmond (5 Locust Lane) trespassed onto his property, and has been throwing his trash into his dumpster. The caller stated this has been an ongoing issue, and he personally advised Derrick not to go onto his property prior to our arrival. I advised the caller I will be speaking with Derrick, and I will advise him to stay off his property.

I made contact with Derrick, and advised him to stay off the callers property. Derrick was also advised to refrain from throwing his trash into the callers dumpster. I advised Derrick failure to do so will result in him being charged accordingly. Derrick stated he will not let it happen again. No further police action taken at this time.

Narrative

Officer request

Councilman Hammerstone, approached me regarding a issue he was having. Hammerstone stated that he was observing people (related to his political opponents) moving signs for the re-election to place their signs in front. I advised him I would document this. Hammerstone wanted no further action except for if officers observe to have the people doing this stop it.

Narrative

Officer Requested - 32 Brynmore Road (First Aid Building).

Responsible LEO:

Approved by:

Date

Supplement

On 06/06/23 at approximately 09:35 hours, I, Ofc. Talty #280 and Sgt. Garrigan #273 responded to 32 Brynmore Road (First Aid Building) in reference to an Officer Requested.

Upon arrival, I met with Jennifer Witham who was waiting outside of the First Aid Building. Jennifer was standing with a polling official ("Master Poller") James Esposito in the parking lot. I also met with the neighbor, Jessica Miele who resides at 25 Brynmore Road, across the street from the First Aid Building.

Jessica explained on her property near the roadway there were "Tallon Neyenhouse" signs displayed for the upcoming election. The First Aid Building is the current polling place and today the polls are open for voting. Jessica stated as she was leaving her residence to bring her son to school, she observed the "Tallon Neyenhouse" signs were covered by, "Vote Here," signs, which have an arrow on them pointing toward her residence. She explained she also saw Michael Hammerstone parked in the First Aid Building's parking lot, and she stated she confronted him by telling him covering the signs was not right. Jessica stated Michael told her he did not move the signs, but a polling official did.

On scene, the Master Poller James Esposito stated he did not move the signs, and that he saw Mr. Hammerstone move them. Through conversation, Jennifer Witham explained this incident just needs to be documented.

Jessica did not want to pursue any further action at this time and I advised I will document this incident for future reference.

No further report.
