CASE REPORT

CASE# 2025-00023930

23 Washington St
Mt Holly, NJ 08060

NARRATIVE

Case Number 25-23930

12/8/2025 At Approximately 11:06 PM

On the above date and time, officers were dispatched to 148 Mount Holly Ave for a possible domestic dispute and people fighting in the street. While officers were in route they observed 2 females walking down Mount Holly Ave towards Garden Street. When officers arrived on location they observed a 2009 gray in color Ford Focus with a broken windshield. There were 4 individuals standing near the vehicle.

Officers approached the individuals and inquired on what happened. One of the individuals was the caller, who was later identified as Raul Harley-Nieves. Raul stated that he heard an argument happening outside his residence, and then he heard a loud noise. When he went outside to see what happened, he observed two females walking away from location, one of which was holding an infant. That was when he observed the damage done to the vehicle and remained near it for police to arrive.

Officers checked the surrounding area for the 2 subjects but were unsuccessful in locating them. Officers returned back to the scene and ran the registration for the vehicle, and the registered owner was identified as Nya Weathers. Nya was not on location and officers were unable to locate her.

Officers approached 148 Mount Holly Ave and made contact with a resident, but she stated that she did not hear anything and does not leave her house. Officers remained on location and called for a tow for the Ford Focus due to the disabling damage to the front windshield of the vehicle.

While officers remained on location for the tow, a female subject was seen walking on Mount Holly Ave before making entry into 148 Mount Holly Ave. Officers knocked on the residence once again in an attempt to make contact with this subject. The female answered the door but was not cooperative with police and did not want to identify herself. She stated that a male subject name Gregory Ellis did the damage to the vehicle and officers should contact his PO. The female subject was positively identified as Starnazah Barnes, officers were familiar with her due to previous encounters. Starnazah did not want to report any acts of domestic violence or any incidents that took place, and officers did not observe any obvious signs of injury.

Risoldi's Towing Company took possession of the 2009 Ford Focus and officers cleared from location without further incident. The tow slips were added to the tow slip binder at the Mount Holly Police Station, and a copy of the tow slip is also included in the case file.

As of now, no additional subjects have come forward to provide any information regarding the incident that took place. Nya has not reported any damage to her vehicle, and has not picked up the tow slips needed to have her vehicle released from Risoldi's Towing Company.

Body worn camera was tagged and uploaded to Evidence.com.
