Notes

Caller reported that her estranged husband who has not been home in a month just showed up and is being argumentative. POs responded and report the husband engaged in a verbal dispute with the complainant and his daughter while gathering his belongings. The husband left shortly after without incident. The complainant was provided information for Rutherford Social Services after she explained the current situation with the apartment lease. The complainant was also advised on actions to take going forward should there be any issues when the husband returns.

Incident Report

Caller reports her two daughters are involved in a verbal dispute which she can not resolve on her own. Sgt and POs dispatched and report that the daughter's were involved in a verbal dispute regarding use of a shared bathroom. The younger daughter, [REDACTED] felt as if her privacy was not being respected by her sister, Jaylynn. The two sisters became in engaged in a shouting match which was unable to be resolved by the mother. POs mediated the usage of the bathroom and the older daughter left for work, settling the dispute for now.

Caller reports smelling an odor of natural gas coming from his apartment. PO FD and PSEG dispatched. While on scene it was determined that the caller no longer has access to the apartment as he has not been living there for numerous months and no longer has a key to the residence. As no access was able to be gained to the apartment FD took there reading from under the door which resulted in negative results. PSEG responded and shut the gas for that specific unit until the resident (callers wife) returns. Callers wife had called RPD while officers were on scene and again confirmed her husband has not lived at the residence for at least 3 months. Caller had admitted to staying a friends in North Bergen in the recent months. It is documented in a previous RPD report on 5/29/26 (26-09106) that shows Mr. Cuervo not living at the residence. No exact address was given. Caller was advised that he would not be given access to the apartment at this time and would need to follow proper procedure with the courts if he wished to do so.
