NARRATIVE

On 8/12/2024 at approximately 1600 hrs Ptl. Heffernan Ptl. R. Zilavetz, Sgt. Flanegan and I responded to a reported unconscious male. Upon our arrival The male [redacted] was found sitting in the driver seat of his vehicle unconcious and appeared to be under the influence of heroin. He was given two doses of narcan and oxygen before he became coherent again. Several wax folds stam ed fire ball were found next to a glass pipe on the passenger seat of the vehicle and were seized for destruction. [redacted] was treated on scene by EMS and refused further treatment at Community Medical Center. Once [redacted] was cleared by EMS he went into his residence.

Dispatch a few minutes after [redacted] went inside received a call from him stating that he was not feeling well a ain. All patrol units were still on scene when this call was dispatched. we made our way up to [redacted] room where he was observed sitting on the edge of his bed acting lethargic. While trying to assess [redacted] he began to pass out again. He was given another dose of narcan but there was no change in his behavior. He was put into a recovery position and supervised. After approximately 6 minutes of no change in behavior he was given a second dose of narcan. Ems arrived on scene shortly after the second dose was administered. They escorted him out of the residence and transported him to Community Medical Center for further treatment. OD mapping was completed by Sgt. Flanegan.
