Englishtown Residents

Brenden Sharkey · Top contributor · 6 February ·

Hey everyone, happy Friday!

Hope you're all staying warm through this crazy cold weather.

Sean Atterbury and I recently stepped in as co-chairs of our local Environmental Committee, and we're looking to bring a few more community members on board. We've got some great initiatives planned for the year, and we'd really love to bring in folks who want to add some positivity and help keep our town moving in a good direction.

If you're interested in getting involved, even in small ways, feel free to message or email us at addresses below. Always happy to connect with neighbors who want to make a difference.

Thanks for a Great Englishtown Day!

Big thanks to the Rec Committee for putting together such a fun and well-organized Englishtown Day. You really knocked it out of the park!

And to all the residents who came out, thank you for showing up, supporting the community, local vendors, and making the day special. It was great to see everyone enjoying themselves.

Looking forward to the next one!

Hi Brenden. There has been a pile of garbage blocking the sidewalk on water street next to the tattoo parlor for the past 2 weeks. Sanitation is not picking it up I assume because it is not put out properly. It is really disgusting. Can you please have someone look in to this. Thank you

Hi [REDACTED] if you email our BA and Mayor with this picture they will get someone out to it. I would email Janet Leonardis Mayor Francisco and our BA.

My husband messaged the mayor a couple of days and he hasn't heard back from him.
I saw today there already holes on the bags. Probably animals are getting into them.

I will try Janet Leonardis

Okay try Janet that's her department unfortunately that's the protocol we're suppose to follow for DPW type request

You can always include me on the email if you like

Hi just wanted to know if council is not allowed to post information to my resident page such as all the informational things councilwoman post on the forum page? I asking since they seem to post on the forum and the instagram page Important information but it's not on the borough website. I understand if neither of you can answer this question but I will address this at the next meeting.

That's extremely sad to hear and I will keep this conversation between me you and Sean who is on this. I'm sorry this is happening and I'm getting frustrated again. I've been keeping quiet and trying to be kind and friendly with everyone. I just removed myself from the forum. I know the people who are on my page who go back and talk shit and report to the mayor but I don't care. 99.8% of the stuff on my page is fact and truth and I will not have any mayor, councilperson intimidate me or the residents or takeover my page which I created and run. I was asked to do this many years ago by a councilperson and it will not be given up even if I move or if I die that page will stay as is. Thank you for replying to me and as I said this conversation goes no further. To many people are being hand picked to be on planning board ... I'm over this BS Thanks again talk soon. You and Sean promised me you would stand together and I hope you both are.

Of course [REDACTED] will always answer you or if someone directly asked me on the page I would answer to the best of my ability.

Our BA is in ur page too and sees everything but will only say something if I say something

What's her name?

You sent

Oh wait nevermind she's only in the forum

BS is not a resident so I can take her off.

Yeah I did accept BA

All of them that are in my page never say anything except Janet which I will take off after next meeting.

I have been nice with him since englishtown day I even give him little things I sell she his kids. Sunday he was in church with kids and we sometimes go to breakfast afterwards meet up with Alite and he joined either kids 2 weeks ago. My husband and I know how to be kind and friendly but when someone crosses me or my family gloves off. Right now we are at a calm place with him and I need to keep it that way until I decide if I want to join you and Sean.

Of course no pressure and health / family first always
