Subject: client Jason Samaritano

Hello: I am wondering if I could receive some clarification regarding the plea that took place with Mr. Samaritano on 11/03/23 in front of Judge D'Arrigo. In speaking with Mr. Samaritano, he indicated that the Judge advised him that he was no longer under Recovery Court supervision and sentencing on the RC VOPs would occur on 1/8/24 with his new case. Did the Judge terminate his Recovery court probation on 11/3 and sentencing would then be heard on 1/8/24? We will be preparing an addendum with updated jail credit for his 1/8 sentence date. Any insight you could provide would be appreciated.

To be clear, the assignment Judge transfer order included the VOPs which is why I disposed of them as part of the global resolution.

Hello: I am wondering if I could receive some clarification regarding the plea that took place with Mr. Samaritano on 11/03/23 in front of Judge D'Arrigo. In speaking with Mr. Samaritano, he indicated that the Judge advised him that he was no longer under Recovery Court supervision and sentencing on the RC VOPs would occur on 1/8/24 with his new case. Did the Judge terminate his Recovery court probation on 11/3 and sentencing would then be heard on 1/8/24? We will be preparing an addendum with updated jail credit for his 1/8 sentence date. Any insight you could provide would be appreciated.

The sentencing for Jason Samaritano will be postponed to Monday, 3/25 at 9:00am. This should allow for ample time to resolve any issues. Mr. Samaritano should be aware of this situation and able to arrange for alternate counsel for this date, if necessary.

Please confirm that you have received this new date.

Recover Court is the last case mentioned in this amended order that was sent to Jason's attorney by Ms. Snock. We need to know what is going on. Is this a communication failure? Please advise.

Good afternoon,

I'm writing regarding the venue transfer that Judge Susan Sheppard ordered relating to ALL of my husband, Jason Samaritano's cases. Jason has been contacted twice by his former probation officer from Atlantic County. Today he told Jason that he is supposed continue monitoring him. This is a complete conflict of interest since everything was transferred out of Atlantic County.

This is very similar to the situation we encountered when his cases were transferred to Atlantic County because of the conflict with Ocean County. Ocean County attempted to hold on to Jason's monitoring and violated him when those cases were transferred to Atlantic County. History seems to repeat itself.

Currently Jason's attorney is on suspension until a fine is paid. While he is on suspension I need communication from all of you since Jason is not permitted on the internet at this time until his sentencing. I want to make it very clear that since his arrest on December 5th, 2022 nobody from Recovery Court has reached out to Jason. It's our understanding that any violation of Recovery court is to be brought before a judge within 30 days. Clearly that did not happen. Furthermore, Jason was supposed to have graduated Recovery Court in July 2022 but that was held up after he filed charges against the Deputy Defender Scott Sherwood.

Jason was released from the Cumberland County Jail on November 3rd. The first time he heard from the Atlantic County probation officer was November 21st. I don't understand what exactly is going on since the judges order was for all his Atlantic County cases to be transferred to Cumberland County. Recovery Court was clearly put on that order. At minimum the Cumberland County Recovery Court Judge should have seen Jason within 30 days of the alleged violation. Please explain what Atlantic County's reason is for not sending the alleged VOP'S to Cumberland County and attempting to charge Jason now?

I have previously requested all of Jason's Recovery Court records and to date we have received nothing. I have a Durable Power of Attorney if you need a copy in order to supply these records to me. I have copied his attorney on this email to keep him informed as to what has been going on. I also copied the Cumberland County Prosecutor's Office and their Pretrial Monitoring division.

Please respond with your reasoning behind involvement in a case that was clearly transferred out of your venue and provide me with his entire recovery court file as I have requested it many times even prior to Jason's arrest on December 5th, 2022.

Thank you for your time and anticipated cooperation.

Sincerely,

Erin Samaritano

Please explain what Atlantic County's reason is for not sending the alleged VOP'S to Cumberland County and attempting to charge Jason now?

I have previously requested all of Jason's Recovery Court records and to date we have received nothing. I have a Durable Power of Attorney if you need a copy in order to supply these records to me. I have copied his attorney on this email to keep him informed as to what has been going on. I also copied the Cumberland County Prosecutor's Office and their Pretrial Monitoring division.

Please respond with your reasoning behind involvement in a case that was clearly transferred out of your venue and provide me with his entire recovery court file as I have requested it many times even prior to Jason's arrest on December 5th, 2022.

Thank you for your time and anticipated cooperation.

Sincerely,

Erin Samaritano

Recover Court is the last case mentioned in this amended order that was sent to Jason's attorney by Ms. Snock. We need to know what is going on. Is this a communication failure? Please advise.

Good afternoon,

I'm writing regarding the venue transfer that Judge Susan Sheppard ordered relating to ALL of my husband, Jason Samaritano's cases. Jason has been contacted twice by his former probation officer from Atlantic County. Today he told Jason that he is supposed continue monitoring him. This is a complete conflict of interest since everything was transferred out of Atlantic County.

This is very similar to the situation we encountered when his cases were transferred to Atlantic County because of the conflict with Ocean County. Ocean County attempted to hold on to Jason's monitoring and violated him when those cases were transferred to Atlantic County. History seems to repeat itself.

Currently Jason's attorney is on suspension until a fine is paid. While he is on suspension I need communication from all of you since Jason is not permitted on the internet at this time until his sentencing. I want to make it very clear that since his arrest on December 5th, 2022 nobody from Recovery Court has reached out to Jason. It's our understanding that any violation of Recovery court is to be brought before a judge within 30 days. Clearly that did not happen. Furthermore, Jason was supposed to have graduated Recovery Court in July 2022 but that was held up after he filed charges against the Deputy Defender Scott Sherwood.

Jason was released from the Cumberland County Jail on November 3rd. The first time he heard from the Atlantic County probation officer was November 21st. I don't understand what exactly is going on since the judges order was for all his Atlantic County cases to be transferred to Cumberland County. Recovery Court was clearly put on that order. At minimum the Cumberland County Recovery Court Judge should have seen Jason within 30 days of the alleged violation. Please explain what Atlantic County's reason is for not sending the alleged VOP'S to Cumberland County and attempting to charge Jason now?
