NARRATIVE

On May 14, 2010 at 00:04 hours Sgt. Rovelos and I responded to 9012 Durham Avenue on a report of a parking complaint. Upon arrival I spoke to Edward Somick who stated there has been an ongoing issue with parking violations such as vehicles blocking his driveway and vehicles parked on the sidewalk. He also advised me that residents of 9010 Durham Avenue often park their vehicles blocking his driveway. I then began to write a summons to New Jersey ZRR57X for parking on the sidewalk. I was approached by Willy Zapata who resides at 9010 Durham Avenue and he started to question me about what constitutes a vehicle being parked improperly. While speaking with Mr. Zapata Mr. Somick grew extremely upset. I tried to ascertain from Mr. Somick what had just happened but due to his emotions running so high he was unable to articulate what had happened.

I then asked for additional units to respond. Sgt. Corbisiero, P.O. Ho-Pelaez and P.O. Galliano responded to my location. Due to us being unable to calm Mr. Somick down it was determined that he should be removed from the scene and transported to headquarters to discuss this incident further. Mr. Somick was then transported to Headquarters. While at Headquarters I spoke to Mr. Somick. After Mr. Somick calmed down, he stated that earlier in the evening Mr. Zapata's vehicle was blocking his driveway. When Mr. Somick asked that the vehicle be moved, Mr. Zapata made comments towards Mr. Somick's family. It was the comments towards Mr. Somick's family that had made him so upset at the scene along with the fact that he has had an ongoing complaint in regards to the numerous parking complaints in front of his residence and he has become very frustrated over it. Mr. Somick was then transported back to his residence. Two summonses were issued on scene to New Jersey ZPV82Z (PJ871851) and New Jersey ZRR57X (PJ871852) for parking on the sidewalk.
