Dear John Joergensen,

Thank you for your relationship with Thomson Reuters, as well as the opportunity to partner with you to bring Westlaw Edge, Practical Law and other tools to your law students.

This year, we were especially excited to provide your students and faculty with enhancements to Westlaw Edge, including the newly launched Quick Check, which allows your students and faculty to feel even more confident in their work-product.

In addition, we were pleased to grow our online certification offering by launching enhanced certifications, including Essential and Advanced Legal Research, Litigation and Transactional Research, and Prepare to Practice. These enhancements were a direct response to the feedback and partnership that we received from the law school community. In coming weeks, we will be launching a new certification that was co-created by your peers around both the foundations of the law and a better understanding of the legal research process. To allow you and your faculty easier access to these online modules, we also launched the ability to assign and track completion via My Classes within the Knowledge Center. It is our mission to continue to partner and create solutions that meet your needs.

Westlaw Pricing

This is the time of year that we reach out to let you know the updated per student pricing for Westlaw to help inform your budget process. Here is the pricing for the 2020-2021 academic year.

Your Westlaw subscription for the 2020-2021 academic year is priced at $86.22 per full-time-equivalent (FTE) enrollment with an $18,505.28 minimum and a $74,210.63 maximum.

To calculate your FTE subscription rate, we look at the reported full-time student enrollment provided by the American Bar Association, the number of LLMs obtained based on self-registration and your historical part-time enrollment.

Here are the enrollment numbers we used for your FTE calculation:

	% of Last year enrollment	Total Enrollment	Number applied to FTE calculation
ABA Enrollment report (Dec. 2019)		1207
Prior* percentage full-time students	75.41%	910	910
Prior* percentage part-time students x .67	24.59%	297	199
LLMs registered in system as of Jan. 31, 2020		0	0
Student FTE			1109

Based on this calculation, your Westlaw rate for the 2020-2021 academic year will be $74,210.63.
