

Kristen A. Hanson
1826 Regina Court
Toms River, New Jersey 08755
(732)-618-5453 (cell)

EDUCATION

Masters in Administration Leadership, May 2016
Georgian Court University, Lakewood, New Jersey

Masters in Counseling Psychology, May 1998
Certified School Psychologist
Georgian Court University, Lakewood, New Jersey

Bachelor of Arts, Psychology, May 1989
Certified Teacher grades Pre-K-8
Georgian Court University, Lakewood, New Jersey

Supervisor Certificate, August 2013
Principal Certificate , December 2017
School Administrator Certificate in process

RELATED EXPERIENCE

April 2016-Current. Supervisor of Special Services West Windsor-Plainsboro School District

Responsibilities include assessment, supervision, and development of special education programs, teachers, CST and instructional assistants. Assessment of staff and student needs and development of professional development activities. Maintaining knowledge of staffing needs and continual hiring to ensure fidelity of programs. Collaboration and communication with multiple supervisors and administration in a variety of buildings and grade levels. Maintaining communication with parent groups and working to develop positive culture in the special education department.

July 2014-April 2016. Supervisor Special Services Belmar and Bradley Beach Elementary Schools.

October 2013-June 2014. Supervisor Special Services Belmar Elementary School
Responsibilities include Supervisor of Special Education and programs, Supervisor of Preschool, Supervisor of ESL, Homeless Liaison and Anti- Bullying Coordinator. In charge of hiring and managing all staff in preschool, special education and ESL. Completed over 100 observations of staff. Ensured compliance with complicated special education and bilingual codes. Prepared for and participated in county and state monitoring. Prepared professional development for staff on a variety of subjects including: Sheltered Instruction, Dyslexia, FBA and BIP, Paraprofessional Responsibilities and Co-Teaching.

September 2010-October 2013 School Psychologist Tinton Falls Schools.

Responsibilities include cognitive, emotional and social assessments, consultation and teacher training, parent consultations, creating programming for special education children and participation in risk assessments for the Tinton Falls School District. Special Education new Autistic program development and scheduling. Took on leadership role on child study team.

September 2006-June 2010. School Psychologist. Keansburg Schools.

Responsibilities include cognitive, social and emotional assessments. Member of the Out of District Child Study Team. Responsible for placement of students in out of district schools, case management, behavior plans, transitioning students back to district programs.

May 2005-June 2006. School Psychologist. Freehold Township Elementary and Middle Schools.

Responsibilities included: Developing and implementing IEPs. Selecting and administering cognitive, social and emotional assessments. Completing crisis interventions, consultations with parents, teachers, and consultants. Developing and administering training of staff in the areas of emotional, social and behavioral techniques, and implementing classroom strategies for students and teachers.

September 1998-May 2005. School Psychologist. Red Bank Regional High School.

Responsibilities included Cognitive, social, emotional and behavioral assessments. Suicidal assessments, counseling of students, developing appropriate educational programs for special education students and consultation with parents, teachers and students.

September 1995-June 1998. School Counselor. Saint Joseph Grade School, Toms River, New Jersey.

Responsibilities included counseling grade school students with a variety of issues, consulting with parents, implementing strategies in the classroom for teachers, developing behavior plans, and training staff.

September 1992-June 1995. Teacher 6th, 7th and 8th Grade, Sea Girt Elementary School, Sea Girt.

Responsibilities included teaching science to an academically diverse group of 6th, 7th and 8th grade students, managing behavior problems, working cooperatively with colleagues and developing a challenging science curriculum.

January 1989-June 1992. Teacher of Grade 7 and 8. St. Leo's Grade School, Lincroft, New Jersey.

Responsibilities included teaching a challenging curriculum while being sensitive to each child's needs. Managing behavior issues, developing lesson plans, and working cooperatively with colleagues.