Re: Open Public Records Act Request #24-31

Dear Erin:

This letter is in response to your public records request under the Open Public Records Act and common law, received by this agency via email on March 13, 2024, seeking copies of the following employees' resumes: (1) John Santoliquido, (2) Lynn Heyer, (3) Rick McKelvey, (4) Erik Bergman, and (5) James Kirshner.

We are not in possession of records responsive to your request for John Santoliquido and Rick McKelvey's resumes.

Please find enclosed the resumes of Lynn Heyer, Erik Bergman, and James Kirshner. Please note that any information contained in the resume unrelated to specific training or education required for their employment has been redacted in accordance with relevant statutes and/or case law. Kovalcik v. Somerset County, 206 N.J. 581, 594 (2011); N.J.S.A. 47:1A-10.

Under the common law, you must declare what your interest in the requested records is.

“To gain access to this broader class of materials, the requestor must make a greater showing than OPRA requires: ‘(1) ‘the person seeking access must establish an interest in the subject matter of the material’; and (2) ‘the citizen's right to access must be balanced against the State's interest in preventing disclosure.’”

N. Jersey Media Grp., Inc. v. Twp. of Lyndhurst, 229 N.J. 541, 578 (2017) (citing Mason v. City of Hoboken, 196 N.J. 51, 67-68 (2008)).

Very truly yours,

Marisa Pescatore
Assistant Prosecutor
Custodian of Records
