at 5 p.m. due to weather. Region 3 service will continue to operate as long as weather and road conditions allow.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Customers will see trains and light rail cars traveling on the tracks during the service suspension for safety reasons to keep overhead wires and tracks free of snow and ice.

NJ TRANSIT is working hard to restore service as quickly as possible when conditions permit. Please continue to monitor njtransit.com for the latest service information.

NJ TRANSIT continues to have personnel and assets in position in order to address any issues that may arise during the aftermath of the winter weather. NJ TRANSIT's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) remains open and continues to monitor any impacts the storm has on the system.

Customers are strongly advised to build in extra travel time and visit njtransit.com, access

NJ TRANSIT's Twitter feed at @NJTRANSIT or listen to broadcast traffic reports.

Additionally,

NJ TRANSIT will provide the most current service information via the My Transit alert system (www.njtransit.com/mytransit), which delivers travel advisories to your smartphone. Service information is also available by calling (973) 275-5555.

Travel Advice:

- Listen closely to public address announcements at stations for late-breaking service information.
- Build additional travel time into your trip to a station, terminal or bus stop.
- Stairs, flooring and platforms can be slippery, so please use caution when walking along wet surfaces or any outdoor surface exposed to the weather. Use extra care when boarding or exiting buses and trains.
- Report slippery or unsafe conditions at stations or stops to bus operators, train crews or NJ TRANSIT staff.
- If you park, ensure your car is stocked with a snow brush and ice scraper so you can clear your car upon returning to the lot.

About NJ TRANSIT

NJ TRANSIT is the nation's largest statewide public transportation system providing more than 925,000 weekday trips on 253 bus routes, three light rail lines, 12 commuter rail lines and through Access Link paratransit service. It is the third largest transit system in the country with 166 rail stations, 62 light rail stations and more than 19,000 bus stops linking major points in New Jersey, New York and Philadelphia.

This is a cool, quick little feature for the holiday week next week.

<https://newjersey.news12.com/carteret-man-writes-children-s-book-inspired-by-stray-cat-living-at-marina>

My name is Jason Van Woeart and I am a 3rd generation resident of Carteret, NJ. I couldn't help but notice that you not only report on local investigative stories, but local lighthearted stories as well!

At the boat marina in Carteret lives a stray cat that I have been feeding for the past few years between working full-time and school full-time. I recently wrote a children's book about Marina Cat and will be donating 25% of proceeds from the book to animal charity. The book is called, The Adventures of Marina Cat: who ate my food? and it is about perseverance, sharing, inclusion, and acceptance. With the holidays approaching, some Central Jersey readers may see this as an uplifting and local heartwarming story. I would be forever grateful if you would ever consider exploring a future story about Carteret's Marina Cat and her new-found fame. Thank you for your time.

Stay safe & healthy,

This is a cool, quick little feature for the holiday week next week.

My name is Jason Van Woeart and I am a 3rd generation resident of Carteret, NJ. I couldn't help but notice that you not only report on local investigative stories, but local lighthearted stories as well!

At the boat marina in Carteret lives a stray cat that I have been feeding for the past few years between working full-time and school full-time. I recently wrote a children's book about Marina Cat and will be donating 25% of proceeds from the book to animal charity. The book is called, The Adventures of Marina Cat: who ate my food? and it is about perseverance, sharing, inclusion, and acceptance. With the holidays approaching, some Central Jersey readers may see this as an uplifting and local heartwarming story. I would be forever grateful if you would ever consider exploring a future story about Carteret's Marina Cat and her new-found fame. Thank you for your time.

Subject: FW: Potential story: Carteret, NJ

This is a cool, quick little feature for the holiday week next week.

My name is Jason Van Woeart and I am a 3rd generation resident of Carteret, NJ. I couldn't help but notice that you not only report on local investigative stories, but local lighthearted stories as well!

At the boat marina in Carteret lives a stray cat that I have been feeding for the past few years between working full-time and school full-time. I recently wrote a children's book about Marina Cat and will be donating 25% of proceeds from the book to animal charity. The book is called, The Adventures of Marina Cat: who ate my food? and it is about perseverance, sharing, inclusion, and acceptance. With the holidays approaching, some Central Jersey readers may see this as an uplifting and local heartwarming story. I would be forever grateful if you would ever consider exploring a future story about Carteret's Marina Cat and her new-found fame. Thank you for your time.

Stay safe & healthy,
Jason Van Woeart
