If you dispute this complaint, you or your attorney must file a written answer or motion and proof of service with the deputy clerk of the Superior Court in the county listed above within 35 days from the date you received this summons, not counting the date you received it. (A directory of the addresses of each deputy clerk of the Superior Court is available in the Civil Division Management Office in the county listed above and online at http://www.judiciary.state.nj.us/prose/10153_deptyclerklawref.pdf.) 5. Upon information and belief, Defendant IV Boys is a New Jersey Limited Liability Company.

6. Upon information and belief, Defendant IV Boys is the owner of 218 and 220 Madison Avenue, Morristown, New Jersey and is the lessor of the property leased by Defendant TD Bank, resting on those same lots.

7. Defendant the Town of Morristown is incorporated as a town within Morris County, New Jersey, and is the municipality in which the herein events occurred.

8. Plaintiff served Defendant the Town of Morristown with a claim for damages pursuant to the New Jersey Tort Claims Act, N.J.S.A. 59:1, et seq. on March 30, 2011.

9. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants named as John Does 1 through 10 and ABC Corporations 1 through 10, and each and all of them, were in some manner responsible for the acts and/or omissions and damages and injuries alleged hereinafter, and each such Defendant is named in accordance with Rule 4:5-1:

b. Upon information and belief, ABC Corporations 1 through 10 are corporations, the names and addresses of which are unknown.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

10. On December 30, 2010, Plaintiff walked from her home in Morristown, New Jersey, to the TD Bank branch located at the TD Bank Property to transact business at the bank.

11. As she approached the bank, Plaintiff fell and injured herself on a raised and uneven sidewalk on the TD Bank Property.

12. An ambulance was summoned, and Plaintiff was transported to the emergency room at Morristown Memorial Hospital where she received medical treatment for injuries sustained during the fall, including, but not limited to, a fractured nose, an injured hand, and significant lacerations and bruising. Plaintiff received nine stitches on her face in order to close certain of the facial lacerations caused by the fall.

13. Plaintiff's injuries required numerous additional visits to the hospital and other doctors and laboratories for follow-up medical treatment and testing for the injuries she sustained during the fall.

14. Plaintiff suffered excruciating pain as a result of her injuries and was largely confined to her home for approximately two months following the fall, preventing her from performing her daily activities.

15. Plaintiff's injuries have left her with permanent and lasting disfigurement, including scars, discoloration on her face, and permanent pain and stiffness in her hand.

16. Plaintiff suffered, and continues to suffer from, psychological and emotional distress as a result of the fall.

17. The fall and its resulting injuries continue to negatively impact Plaintiff's daily activities.

18. Upon information and belief, Defendants were aware of the hazard created by the raised and uneven sidewalk on the TD Bank Property many months before December 30, 2010, but failed to take any steps to either repair the hazardous condition or warn pedestrians of it.

19. On April 2, 2011, Plaintiff was walking through the TD Bank Property on her way to church services. Although Plaintiff exercised caution as she approached the area of the raised and uneven sidewalk, the unreasonably dangerous and hazardous condition of the sidewalk on the TD Bank Property again caused Plaintiff to fall.

20. Plaintiff suffered additional injuries as a result of this fall, including lacerations and bruises on her arms and face which lasted for several weeks.

21. Plaintiff suffered, and continues to suffer from, psychological and emotional distress as a result of this second fall.

COUNT ONE
(Negligence)
(Against All Defendants)

22. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by reference each and every foregoing paragraph of this Complaint as if set forth in full.

23. Defendants had a duty to keep the sidewalk on the TD Bank Property reasonably safe and free from dangerous and/or hazardous conditions.

24. Defendants breached this duty by:

a. Failing to use that degree of care, precaution, and vigilance which a reasonably prudent person would use under the same or similar circumstances to keep the sidewalk on the TD Bank Property reasonably safe and free from dangerous and/or hazardous conditions;

b. Failing to use that degree of care, precaution, and vigilance which a reasonably prudent person would use under the same or similar circumstances to timely repair the sidewalk; and

c. Failing to use that degree of care, precaution, and vigilance which a reasonably prudent person would use under the same or similar circumstances to provide warnings of the dangerous and/or hazardous condition of the sidewalk.

25. It was reasonably foreseeable that, by failing to do any or all of these things, TD Bank customers and members of the general public, such as Plaintiff, would be injured while walking on the sidewalk.

26. Defendants' negligent failure to use that degree of care, precaution, and vigilance which a reasonably prudent person would use under the same or similar circumstances, caused Plaintiff to fall while walking on the sidewalk on December 30, 2010, and April 2, 2011, causing her extensive and continuing injuries.

27. Defendants' failure to protect Plaintiff against this dangerous condition was palpably unreasonable.

28. As a result of Defendants' negligent failure to use that degree of care, precaution, and vigilance which a reasonably prudent person would use under the same or similar circumstances, Plaintiff has suffered actual damages. These damages include pain and suffering, a continuing hand injury, permanent disfigurement, scarring, and discoloration of her face, and costs of medical treatment. The long-term effects of her injuries continue to manifest themselves. Plaintiff will also continue to incur in the future expenses for necessary medical care and treatment in an amount that is presently unknown, but which will be proven in a specific amount at the time of trial.

COUNT TWO
(Gross Negligence)
(Against Defendants TD Bank and IV Boys)

29. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by reference each and every foregoing paragraph of this Complaint as if set forth in full.

30. Defendants TD Bank and IV Boys had a duty to keep the sidewalk on the TD Bank Property reasonably safe and free from dangerous and/or hazardous conditions.

31. Defendants TD Bank and IV Boys breached this duty by:

a. Failing to exercise slight care or diligence in keeping the sidewalk on the TD Bank Property reasonably safe and free from dangerous and/or hazardous conditions.

b. Failing to exercise slight care or diligence to timely repair the sidewalk; and

c. Failing to exercise slight care or diligence to provide warnings of the dangerous and/or hazardous condition of the sidewalk.

32. It was reasonably foreseeable that, by failing to do any or all of these things, TD Bank customers and members of the general public, such as Plaintiff, would be injured while walking on the sidewalk.

33. The failure of Defendants TD Bank and IV Boys to exercise slight care or diligence caused Plaintiff to fall while walking on the sidewalk on December 30, 2010, and April 2, 2011, causing her extensive and continuing injuries.

34. The gross negligence of Defendants TD Bank and IV Boys caused Plaintiff to suffer actual damages. These damages include pain and suffering, a continuing hand injury, permanent disfigurement, scarring and discoloration of her face, and costs of medical treatment.

The long-term effects of her injuries continue to manifest themselves. Plaintiff will also continue to incur in the future expenses for necessary medical care and treatment in an amount that is presently unknown, but which will be proven in a specific amount at the time of trial.

COUNT THREE
(Willful and Wanton Disregard)
(Against Defendants TD Bank and IV Boys)

35. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by reference each and every foregoing paragraph of this Complaint as if set forth in full.

36. Defendants TD Bank and IV Boys had a duty to keep the sidewalk on the TD Bank Property reasonably safe and free from dangerous and/or hazardous conditions.

37. Defendants TD Bank and IV Boys breached this duty by:

- a. Willfully, wantonly, and/or maliciously failing to keep the sidewalk on the TD Bank Property in a reasonably safe condition;
- b. Willfully, wantonly, and/or maliciously failing to timely repair the dangerous and/or hazardous sidewalk; and
- c. Willfully, wantonly, and/or maliciously failing to provide warnings of the dangerous and/or hazardous condition of the sidewalk.

38. It was reasonably foreseeable that, by willfully, wantonly, and/or maliciously failing to do any or all of these things, that TD Bank customers and members of the general public, such as Plaintiff, would be injured while walking on the sidewalk.

39. The willful, wanton, and/or malicious disregard for safety of Defendants TD Bank and IV Boys IV Boys caused Plaintiff to fall while walking on the sidewalk on December 30, 2010, and April 2, 2011, causing her extensive and continuing injuries.

40. The willful, wanton, and/or malicious disregard for safety of Defendants TD Bank and IV Boys IV Boys caused Plaintiff to suffer actual damages. These damages include pain and suffering, a continuing hand injury, permanent disfigurement, scarring, and discoloration of her face, and costs of medical treatment. The long-term effects of her injuries continue to manifest themselves. Plaintiff will also continue to incur in the future expenses for necessary medical care and treatment in an amount that is presently unknown, but which will be proven in a specific amount at the time of trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Marguerite Wilson demands the following relief against Defendants:

- a. Actual and compensatory damages in an amount to be proven at trial;
- b. Punitive damages in an amount to be proven at trial;
- c. Pre- and post-judgment costs and interest;
- d. Attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses incurred to prosecute this action; and
- e. Such other and further relief as this Court may deem appropriate and equitable.
