Mr. Joseph DiPasquale, Superintendent
Wallkill Valley Regional High School
10 Grumm Road
Hamburg, NJ 07419

Dear Mr. DiPasquale,

Employment is currently sought in Wallkill Valley Regional High School as a Special Educator. My variation in teaching and educational experiences will bring to you numerous benefits such as exposure to various types of classroom organization, management, and procedures. Further benefits are experience in acting and dance fundamentals which will enhance your school's theatrical productions and akin projects.

Focus on past and current work reflect the philosophy of Howard Gardner which is evidenced in my unit portfolios. Multiple Intelligence theory advocates not all students are motivated by the acquisition of knowledge in the same manner. I share Gardner's belief and incorporate it into every lesson plan in order to provide all students in the classroom with meaningful learning.

As an educator it is a moral imperative to continue to move forward professionally and academically through workshops, seminars, and continued education. This degree of dedication to education will benefit Wallkill Valley Regional High School because you will have a professional that is dedicated to residing on the cutting edge. It would be my pleasure to have an opportunity to discuss with you the Special Educator position at Wallkill Valley Regional High School. I look forward to your reply.

Sincerely,

Pandora E. Fink-Meyer
