NOTES

Posted Date	Note
03/22/2022 08:56	On Monday, March 21st 2022, at approximately 4:56 p.m. I, Patrolman Murray and Patrolman Auletto through Captain Murray received a phone call complaint of a male knocking on doors causing a disturbance on North Rowand Avenue. The caller, Michael Root, stated the male advised his name was Edward DeSantis. I was familiar with Mr. DeSantis from a previous incident and gave a description of him and his vehicle to Patrolman Auletto and we searched the area. Shortly after arriving Officer Auletto advised me that a vehicle and a male inside it had matched the description I had given sitting on the corner of Highland Ave and Sheppard Ave . I made contact with Mr. DeSatntis who admitted he was knocking on doors on Rowand Ave claiming he was just asking people for assistance but did not explain himself when asked what kind of assistance. I advised Mr. DeSantis that he had made the residents nervous on Rowand Ave and he had already been asked to leave the Days Inn for causing a disturbance on a previous incident. Mr. DeSantis was unable to give a rational explanation as to why he was knocking on doors on Rowand or why he was sitting on the corner of Highland Ave and Sheppard Ave. As and result of this incident Mr. DeSantis was charged with the following: Borough Ordinance 265-5: (Improper Behavior) on complaint number 0430-SC-012761 While Mr. DeSantis was driving away I observed several Title 39 violations and he was charged with the following: 39:3-76.2f - failure to wear seatbelt equipment 39:3-40 -Driving after driving license has been suspended / revoked 39:3-40.1- Operating a motor vehicle when license is suspended or revoked 39:4-144- Disregard stop sign regulation or yield sign
03/22/2022 08:50	The above subject was charged with Borough Ordinance 265-5 (improper behavior) on complaint number 0430-SC-012761 and given a Runnemede Municipal Court date of April 11th 2022 at 2:00 p.m.
