Hi Andy,

Thanks for the letter. Unfortunately, we are rejecting your counteroffer. Our next courtdate is June 24th. After that we will get a date for plea cut off. Please advise which motions you intend to file so we can get this case moving along.

Thank you,
Taylor

Taylor Toscano - Assistant Ocean County Prosecutor

Re: Richard Hone – Counter Plea Proposal

In order to address the contempt charge against the defendant I would like the State to consider the following:

Plea to DP Harassment, with time served and court discretion on the amount of probation time. Mr. Hone has 11 days jail credit for the matter at hand.

As you are aware when this matter was first brought against the defendant, he had no visitation or legal custody of the child he has in common with the victim. Now he enjoys joint legal custody and almost 50% parenting time.

For the last few years the only contact with the victim has been through the State sponsored communication platform for matters regarding the child [REDACTED] or during/at family court hearings.

Sincerely,

/s/ Andrew C. Hannwacker

v.

Richard Hone

Docket No. FO-15-422-15

WARRANT # 2015-520-1506

ORDER RESTRAINING DEFENDANT FROM COMMUNICATING WITH COURT EXCEPT AS PROVIDED HEREIN

This matter came before the Court for trial on October 16, 2015, at which time the Court entered a judgment of conviction on various charges before it. On November 20, 2015, after notice to the Defendant, this matter was set for sentencing, and the Court entered an order imposing sentence.

This order shall supplement the order imposing sentence entered November 20, 2015 and administratively modified by order entered November 24, 2015.

Defendant failed to appear for the trial or for sentencing although properly noticed. He was tried and sentenced in absentia.

Prior to and since entry of the final orders in this matter, the Defendant has communicated with Assistant Prosecutor Michel Paulhus; with various members of the Court staff, including staff assigned to the chambers of the Court, directly or indirectly to members of the Court and has generally communicated in disrespectful; harassing, verbally abusive and profane manners. Attached is a sample of a recent communication from Defendant Hone which is consistent with other communications from Mr. Hone directed to the Court or Court staff.

Defendant has refused to provide a current address. He has communicated to the Court, Court staff and representatives of the Office of the Ocean County Prosecutor using electronic and telephone communications, although he has been instructed to communicate in written form only. He has refused to abide by this request.

On June 9, 2015 Family Division Manager Joseph Sclama hand delivered to Defendant a letter advising him that any future communication must be in writing only. Defendant has not complied with this request. A copy of that letter is attached to this order and made a part.

THEREFORE IT IS ON THIS 9TH DAY OF FEBRUARY, 2016 FOR GOOD

CAUSE ORDERED:

1. That the defendant, Richard Hone, DOB 4/7/1959, shall be and hereby is restrained from communicating with any judges, employees or representatives, or the family members of same, of the Superior Court of New Jersey, Ocean County Vicinage, Toms River, NJ, except written communication directed to the Court by regular mail.
2. That the defendant Richard Hone, shall be restrained from having any contact (including but not limited to telephonic, electronic, written, email, or verbal) with the Ocean County Prosecutor's Office, and in particular Assistant Prosecutor Michel Paulhus, or any other representative of that office (or family member of same) except by written communication sent to the Office of the Ocean County Prosecutor by regular mail.
3. That the defendant, Richard Hone, shall be restrained from making any harassing communications (including but not limited to telephonic, electronic, written, email or verbal) to the Court, any employees or representatives (or family members of same) of the Superior Court of New Jersey, Ocean County vicinage,
4. That a copy of this order shall be provided to the Defendant through his email address [REDACTED] Defendant shall within 14 days of receipt of this order provide the Court with the Defendant's current address for the purpose of directing any future court related correspondence.

5. That Defendant shall be permitted to make application to the Court to dissolve or modify the restraints contained herein by filing a notice of motion, on notice to the Office of the Ocean County Prosecutor, and otherwise in accordance with the Rules of Court.
6. That a copy of this order shall be provided to the Assistant Prosecutor of record, Michel Paulhus. A copy of this order shall also be placed in all Court files in which the Defendant is a party, including but not limited to FO-15-514-15; FO-15-422-15; FV-15-1271-15; FV-15-113-15 and FD-15-802-15.

Dear Mr. Hone,

It has come to my attention that you are dissatisfied about the way your case(s) have been proceeding. It is my understanding that multiple individuals in the court system have repeatedly answered your questions regarding recourses that are available to you when you have called.

I want to advise you that those staff members have all documented your continued harassing and abusive behavior towards them during the course of those calls. As a result of this inappropriate and unacceptable behavior I am limiting your communication with vicinage staff to written form.

If you would like to communicate with either the Family Division, or any other vicinage staff, including Vincent J. Grasso, A.J.S.C. and his staff, regarding your case you may either send a letter via regular mail or fax to (732 288-7606). If you are represented by an attorney, that lawyer may communicate with our staff on your behalf. You are not to attempt to contact our staff outside of these parameters. Due to the abusive and harassing nature of your previous phone interactions, no staff members will accept any further telephone calls from you.

I trust that you will abide by these parameters.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH A. SCLAMA
Family Division Manager
