A Message from the League President

The New Jersey State League of Municipalities (NJLM) is a voluntary association, created to support and promote municipal government by pooling information and fostering dialogue and cooperation resulting in solutions to common problems.

The League also brings cities, towns, townships, boroughs, and villages together in a united voice to advocate on behalf of their citizens. It is authorized by state statute and for the past 110 years has been serving local officials throughout the Garden State. More than 13,000 elected and appointed officials of member municipalities receive all the services and privileges of the League.

The League publishes New Jersey Municipalities magazine, numerous booklets, surveys, handbooks, and other reference materials. The League also provides many other services to its members, such as the Bureau of Municipal Information, legal consultation, training seminars, an annual conference, legislative analyses, lobbying, and our informative website, www.NJLM.org.

This Directory lists municipalities in alphabetical order, including their county, phone and fax numbers, addresses, 2020 Census Bureau Populations. Mayors, Municipal Clerks' names and email addresses, and business administrators (Adm) or municipal managers (Mgr) are also listed. Included again this year is the telephone number for Attorneys, Directors of Law, Corporation Counsels, or Municipal Solicitors (Legal).

This Directory also includes a list of NJLM Officers, Executive Staff, and Executive Board on page 2 and a list of Affiliated Municipal Associations starting on page 6.

I hope you find the 2025 Municipal Directory helpful throughout the year. Please contact the League staff in Trenton if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Paul Tomasko
