

Reference services include providing excellent customer service and assistance to students and faculty members in finding library materials, using the library's subscription resources, and citing sources. In addition to assisting in-person patrons, they will respond to email, text, and/or chat questions.

The librarian in this position will also be expected to lead information Literacy instruction sessions and meet with students for one-on-one research consultations. The librarian may also be called on to help students use the printing system, log guests onto computers, and help users with library equipment such as microform machines, scanners, copiers, and compact shelving.

This part-time, hourly position begins on or after Nov. 1 and continues through Dec. 18; it will start again on Jan. 20 and continue to April 30. Possible shifts include Saturdays from noon-5pm, Sundays from noon-5pm and 5pm-10pm, when the library is open. Please note your availability when you apply.
