

The librarian in this position will be expected to lead information Literacy instruction sessions for evening classes, as scheduled in coordination with Research & Instruction Librarians, and meet with students for one-on-one research consultations. The librarian may also be called on to help students use the printing system, log guests onto computers, and help users with library equipment such as microform machines, scanners, copiers, and compact shelving.

They will also provide reference services including providing excellent customer service and assistance to students and faculty members in finding library materials, using the library's subscription resources, and citing sources. In addition to assisting in-person patrons, they will respond to email, text, or chat questions.

This part-time, hourly position begins on or after Sept. 1 and continues through Dec. 21; it will continue Jan. 17 and continue to May 4. Possible shifts available include Mondays 5-10pm, Tuesdays 5-10pm, Wednesdays 5-10pm, and Thursdays 5-10pm, when the library is open. Please note your availability when you apply.