

VOORHEES POLICE DEPARTMENT GENERAL ORDER
SUBJECT: CONSULAR NOTIFICATION AND ACCESS
EFFECTIVE DATE: February 23, 2017	NUMBER OF PAGES: 5
ACCREDITATION STANDARDS: N/A	BY THE ORDER OF: Chief of Police Louis Bordi

PURPOSE The purpose of this general order is to comply with the provisions of the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations regarding notifications to consulate officials in the event foreign nationals die, are seriously injured, or are arrested or detained.

POLICY Under the provisions of the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations, Apr. 24, 1963, articles 5, 36, 37, 21 U.S.T. 77, 101, when foreign nationals are arrested or detained, they must be advised of the right to have their consular official notified. In some cases notification is mandatory, whether the foreign national consents to the notification or not. Further, in the event a foreign national dies, their consulate must be notified.

The Vienna Convention on Consular Relations is a bilateral agreement between nations regarding the legal obligations that countries have towards foreign nationals in certain situations.

Officers and detectives are required to provide prompt notification to a foreign national's consular officials. Failure to provide prompt notification may result in the reversal of any criminal conviction (State v. Cevallos-Bermo, 333 N.J. Super. 181 (App. Div. 2000)).

It is the policy of the Voorhees Township Police Department to promptly provide these notifications, where necessary, in the event a foreign national is arrested, detained, or suffered serious injury or death.

PROCEDURES

I. DEFINITIONS

- A. Arrest refers to any detention or other commitment to custody that results in a foreign national being incarcerated for more than a few hours initiating the consular notification requirements in this general order.
 - 1. A brief traffic stop or an arrest that results in a uniform traffic ticket or special complaint and release at the scene for an infraction or offense would not require that consular notification be provided.
 - 2. Requiring a foreign national to accompany a law enforcement officer to a place of detention may prompt the consular notification requirements, particularly if the detention lasts for a number of hours or overnight.
 - 3. The longer a detention continues, the more likely it is that consular notification should be made.
- B. Consular assistance is defined as the right to visit, correspond with or arrange for legal representation of a foreign national detained or in detention.
- C. Consular official or consul is a citizen of a foreign country employed by a foreign government and authorized to provide assistance on behalf of that government to that government's citizens in a foreign country. The term consul should not be confused with counsel, which means an attorney authorized to provide legal counsel and advice.
- D. Detention/detained shall refer to the temporary seizure of a person not amounting to a custodial arrest, but more than the brief stopping of a person to answer questions in a street or motor vehicle investigative encounter. The detention is greater than that which occurs during a Terry stop or a field interview.
- E. Foreign national is any person who is not a United States citizen. The term foreign national and alien are used interchangeably. Resident aliens who have a resident alien registration card, commonly known as a green card, are considered foreign nationals for the purposes of consular notification, as are undocumented aliens.
- F. Without delay is a term contained in the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations generally understood to mean that there should be no deliberate delay, and that notification should occur as soon as reasonably possible under the circumstances. Nevertheless, notification to consular officials should be made within the first 24 hours of the detention, and in most circumstances, within 72 hours.

II. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- A. When foreign nationals are arrested, they must be advised of the right to have their consular officials notified.
- B. Consular officials are entitled to have access to their foreign national in detention and are entitled to provide consular assistance.
- C. A formatted fax sheet for notifying consular officials of arrests or detentions is contained in Attachment B.

- D. A formatted fax sheet for notifying consular officials of death/serious injuries is contained in Attachment C.
- E. A compendium of translated statements in multiple languages is contained in Attachment D to this general order. (For purposes of this general order only 13 languages are listed. It is impossible to list all possible languages. Only those languages common to this region are listed.)
- F. A listing of foreign embassies and consulates in the United States are contained in Attachment E to this general order.
- G. The Vienna Convention on Consular Relations, articles 5, 36, and 37, are contained in Attachment F to this general order.
- H. Under no circumstances should any information indicating that a foreign national may have applied for asylum in the United States or elsewhere be disclosed to that person's government.
- I. If a foreign aircraft crashes, consular officials must be notified. These notifications will generally be made by the state or federal agency having overall jurisdiction for the crash.

III. NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES

- A. When a foreign national is arrested or detained, determine their country of nationality. Normally, this is the country on whose passport or other travel document the foreign national travels.
- B. If the foreign national's country is not on the mandatory notification list in Attachment A:
 - 1. Without delay, offer to notify the foreign national's consular officials of the arrest/detention. See Statement #1 in section IV (page 5).
 - a. If the foreign national understands English, then the statement can be given in English. If the foreign national does not understand English, a listing of statements in 13 foreign languages is contained in Attachment D of this general order.
 - b. If the language is not listed, notify the appropriate consulate by telephone to obtain a copy of the notification in its language or access. See the U.S. State Department, Bureau of Consular Affairs, Consular Notification and Access website at <http://travel.state.gov/CNA>.
 - 2. If the foreign national asks that a consular notification be given, notify the nearest consular official of the foreign national's country without delay. Foreign embassy and consulate telephone numbers, fax numbers, and email addresses can be found on the Department of State's website at <http://travel.state.gov/CNA>.

- C. If the foreign national's country is on the list of mandatory notification countries:
1. Notify that country's nearest consular officials of the arrest/detention, without delay immediately via fax. Notification should occur as soon as is reasonably possible under the circumstances. Notification must be made regardless of whether the foreign national desires notification. Telephone numbers, fax numbers and email addresses can be found on the U.S. State Department, Bureau of Consular Affairs, Consular Notification and Access website at <http://travel.state.gov/CNA>.
 2. Inform the foreign national of the mandatory notification of their arrest/detention. See Statement #2 in section V (page 5).
 - a. If the foreign national understands English, then the statement can be given in English. If the foreign national does not understand English, a listing of statements in 13 foreign languages is contained in Attachment D.
 - b. If the language is not listed, notify the appropriate embassy or consulate by telephone to obtain a copy of the notification in its language or access the U.S. State Department, Bureau of Consular Affairs, Consular Notification and Access website at <http://travel.state.gov/CNA>.
- D. Document the notification or the declined notification on the operation report or arrest report narrative noting the following:
1. Name of consulate notified;
 2. How notified, voice, fax, email, etc.;
 3. Name of the official notified;
 4. Time notification was made;
 5. If notification was made by fax, a copy of the fax sheet and the transmission verification report must be submitted with the report.
 6. A copy of the appropriate statement whether in English or in one of the other languages, noting 'Yes' or 'No', (in the case of a non-mandatory notification) must be attached to the report.

IV. STATEMENT #1

- A. To be read to or viewed by a foreign national in a non-mandatory notification setting:

"As a non-U.S. citizen who is being arrested or detained, you may request that we notify your country's consular officers here in the United States of your situation. You may also communicate with your consular officers. A consular officer may be able to help you obtain legal representation, and may contact your family and visit you in detention, among other things. If you want us to notify your consular officers, you can request this notification now, or at any time in the future. Do you want us to notify your consular officers at this time?"

V. STATEMENT #2

- A. To be read to or viewed by a foreign national in a mandatory notification setting:

“Because of your nationality, we are required to notify your country’s consular officers here in the United States that you have been arrested or detained. We will do this as soon as possible. In addition, you may communicate with your consular officers. You are not required to accept their assistance, but your consular officers may be able to help you obtain legal representation, and may contact your family and visit you in detention, among other things.”

VI. DEATH OR SERIOUS INJURY OF A FOREIGN NATIONAL

- A. Notification of the death or life-threatening injury of a foreign national must be made immediately to the nearest consulate of the national's country. The notification will be documented in the operations report documenting the death or serious injury.
- B. Whenever possible, notification must be made by fax or email. When using a fax, use the fax sheet in Appendix C of this general order or the fax sheet found on the U.S. State Department, Bureau of Consular Affairs, Consular Notification and Access website at <http://travel.state.gov/CNA> to document and transmit the notification of death or serious injury.
- C. Such notice will help to ensure that passports and other legal documentation issued by that country are cancelled and not reissued to fraudulent claimants. Additionally, it may help ensure that the foreign national’s family and legal heirs, if any, in the foreign country are aware of the death and that the death is known for estate purposes in that country.

² Hong Kong reverted to Chinese sovereignty on July 1, 1997, and is now officially referred to as the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, or "SAR." Under paragraph 3(f)(2) of the March 25, 1997, U.S.-China Agreement on the Maintenance of the U.S. Consulate General in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, U.S. officials are required to notify Chinese officials of the arrest or detention of the bearers of Hong Kong passports in the same manner as is required for bearers of Chinese passports--i.e., immediately, and in any event within four days of the arrest or detention.

³ United Kingdom includes England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland and Islands and the British dependencies of Anguilla, British Virgin Islands, Bermuda, Montserrat, and the Turks and Caicos Islands. Their residents carry British passports.

⁴ Although the U.S.S.R. no longer exists, some nationals of its successor states may still be traveling on its passports. Mandatory notification should be given to consular officers for all nationals of such states, including those traveling on old U.S.S.R. passports. The successor states are listed separately above.

Vì lý do quốc tịch của Ông/Bà, chúng tôi bắt buộc phải thông báo cho các viên chức lãnh sự của nước Ông/Bà ở Hoa Kỳ là Ông/Bà đã bị bắt hay bị giam. Chúng tôi sẽ thi hành việc này ngay. Ngoài ra, Ông/Bà có quyền liên lạc với các viên chức lãnh sự của nước Ông/Bà. Ông/Bà không bắt buộc phải nhận sự giúp đỡ của họ, nhưng các viên chức lãnh sự này có thể giúp Ông/Bà tìm người đại diện pháp lý, và có thể liên lạc với gia đình Ông/Bà tới thăm Ông/Bà trong nhà giam, ngoài các việc khác. Xin ký tên để chứng tỏ ông bà đã nhận được thông tin này.

Phone/Fax Numbers for Foreign Embassies and Consulates in the U.S.

The following information provides the short-form name of the country, followed by telephone and fax numbers as currently available to the Department of State. Consular notification should be made to the listed location nearest to the place of arrest or detention. Washington, DC information is generally for embassies to the United States; numbers for other locations are for consular offices outside of Washington or, in the case of some countries without embassies or consular offices in the United States, for the country's mission to the United Nations in New York. Corrections to the listed numbers may be provided to the Department of State's Office of Public Affairs and Policy Coordination for Consular Affairs, telephone 202-647-4415; facsimile 202-736-7559. An updated version of the list below can be found on the Department of State web site at http://travel.state.gov/law/consular/consular_745.html.

In a few instances an entity that is not recognized as a country is listed because aliens may be traveling in the United States on travel documents issued by that entity. In addition, some aliens may still be traveling in the United States on documents issued by the former Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (U.S.S.R.), the former Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, and the former Socialist Federal Republic of Czechoslovakia. The successor states or entities of these three former countries are as follows:

Former U.S.S.R:

Armenia
Azerbaijan
Belarus
Georgia
Kazakhstan
Kyrgyzstan
Moldova
Russia
Tajikistan
Turkmenistan
Ukraine
Uzbekistan

Former Yugoslavia:

Bosnia and Herzegovina
Croatia
Macedonia,
Former Yugoslav Republic of Serbia and Montenegro*
Slovenia
*(Passports may indicate "Federal Republic of Yugoslavia.")

Former Czechoslovakia:

Czech Republic
Slovakia

Vienna Convention on Consular Relations

Articles 5, 36, and 37

Article 5: Consular Functions

Consular functions consist in:

- (a) protecting in the receiving State the interests of the sending State and of its nationals, both individuals and bodies corporate, within the limits permitted by international law;
- (b) furthering the development of commercial, economic, cultural and scientific relations between the sending State and the receiving State and otherwise promoting friendly relations between them in accordance with the provisions of the present Convention;
- (c) ascertaining by all lawful means conditions and developments in the commercial, economic, cultural and scientific life of the receiving State, reporting thereon to the Government of the sending State and giving information to persons interested;
- (d) issuing passports and travel documents to nationals of the sending State, and visas or appropriate documents to persons wishing to travel to the sending State;
- (e) helping and assisting nationals, both individuals and bodies corporate, of the sending State;
- (f) acting as notary and civil registrar and in capacities of a similar kind, and performing certain functions of an administrative nature, provided that there is nothing contrary thereto in the laws and regulations of the receiving State;
- (g) safeguarding the interests of nationals, both individuals and bodies corporate, of the sending State in cases of succession mortis causa in the territory of the receiving State, in accordance with the laws and regulations of the receiving State;
- (h) safeguarding, within the limits imposed by the laws and regulations of the receiving State, the interests of minors and other persons lacking full capacity who are nationals of the sending State, particularly where any guardianship or trusteeship is required with respect to such persons;
 - (i) subject to the practices and procedures obtaining in the receiving State, representing or arranging appropriate representation for nationals of the sending State before the tribunals and other authorities of the receiving State, for the purpose of obtaining, in accordance with the laws and regulations of the receiving State, provisional measures for the preservation of the rights and interests of these nationals, where, because of absence or any other reason, such nationals are unable at the proper time to assume the defence of their rights and interests;
 - (j) transmitting judicial and extra-judicial documents or executing letters rogatory or commissions to take evidence for the courts of the sending State in accordance with international agreements in force or, in the absence of such international agreements, in any other manner compatible with the laws and regulations of the receiving State;
 - (k) exercising rights of supervision and inspection provided for in the laws and regulations of the sending State in respect of vessels having the nationality of the sending State, and of aircraft registered in that State, and in respect of their crews;
 - (l) extending assistance to vessels and aircraft mentioned in sub-paragraph (k) of this Article and to their crews, taking statements regarding the voyage of a vessel, examining and stamping the ship's papers, and, without prejudice to the powers of the authorities of the receiving State, conducting investigations into any incidents which occurred during the voyage, and settling disputes of any kind between the master, the officers and the seamen in so far as this may be authorized by the laws and regulations of the sending State;
 - (m) performing any other functions entrusted to a consular post by the sending State which are not prohibited by the laws and regulations of the receiving State or to which no objection is taken by the receiving State or which are referred to in the international agreements in force between the sending State and the receiving State.

Article 36: Communication and Contact With Nationals of the Sending State

1. With a view to facilitating the exercise of consular functions relating to nationals of the sending State:

(a) consular officers shall be free to communicate with nationals of the sending State and to have access to them. Nationals of the sending State shall have the same freedom with respect to communication with and access to consular officers of the sending State;

(b) if he so requests, the competent authorities of the receiving State shall, without delay, inform the consular post of the sending State if, within its consular district, a national of that State is arrested or committed to prison or to custody pending trial or is detained in any other manner. Any communication addressed to the consular post by the person arrested, in prison, custody or detention shall also be forwarded by the said authorities without delay. The said authorities shall inform the person concerned without delay of his rights under this subparagraph;

(c) consular officers shall have the right to visit a national of the sending State who is in prison, custody or detention, to converse and correspond with him and to arrange for his legal representation. They shall also have the right to visit any national of the sending State who is in prison, custody or detention in their district in pursuance of a judgment. Nevertheless, consular officers shall refrain from taking action on behalf of a national who is in prison, custody or detention if he expressly opposes such action.

2. The rights referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be exercised in conformity with the laws and regulations of the receiving State, subject to the proviso, however, that the said laws and regulations must enable full effect to be given to the purposes for which the rights accorded under this Article are intended.

Article 37: Information in Cases of Deaths, Guardianship or Trusteeship, Wrecks, and Air Accidents

If the relevant information is available to the competent authorities of the receiving State, such authorities shall have the duty:

(a) in the case of the death of a national of the sending State, to inform without delay the consular post in whose district the death occurred;

(b) to inform the competent consular post without delay of any case where the appointment of a guardian or trustee appears to be in the interests of a minor or other person lacking full capacity who is a national of the sending State. The giving of this information shall, however, be without prejudice to the operation of the laws and regulations of the receiving State concerning such appointments;

(c) if a vessel, having the nationality of the sending State, is wrecked or runs aground in the territorial sea or internal waters of the receiving State, or if an aircraft registered in the sending State suffers an accident on the territory of the receiving State, to inform without delay the consular post nearest to the scene of the occurrence.
