John, thanks so much for making time for a call with me today. It was great to make contact, and I'm glad that you are able to participate in our conference. I checked with John Jacobi, and we both would love to have both you and Prosecutor Coronato join the morning panel. There is no doubt that you each would offer important perspectives and experience. Our major concern, as I mentioned to you during our call, is time. It already is a tightly packed 2-hour panel, just before lunch, and we can't extend the time. We also want to be sure to leave time for discussion with the audience. If you think that you and Prosecutor Coronato would be able to share the time slot (about 15-17 minutes), we welcome you both. If that's too tight, should we do rock, paper, scissors? I wish I could find time in the day.

Let me know your thoughts, and I'll get the conference information out to whomever will be speaking. Thanks so much.

Here's the link to the conference registration that you can share with your colleagues: <https://law.shu.edu/events/journal-symposium.cfm>

Thanks again! I look forward to hearing from you!

Best,

Tara

Subject: 2/22 SH Law Opioids Symposium Registrant Information

Dear Symposium Registrants,

We look forward to seeing you on Thursday, February 22, 2018, at "Opioids: Care Coordination, Transitions, and Engagement," a symposium jointly sponsored by the Seton Hall Law Center for Health & Pharmaceutical Law & Policy, Circuit Review, and Legislative Journal.

Location: The Law School is located at One Newark Center, Newark, NJ 07102. Please use the following address when using a mapping service such as Google Maps: 1109 Raymond Blvd., Newark, NJ 07102. We are conveniently located about one block from Newark Penn Station, which is a stop on NJ Transit, Path, and Amtrak train lines and is accessible by a number of bus routes. We strongly encourage you to use mass transit as registrations for this conference have been robust, and parking may be a challenge.

Public Transportation and Directions to Seton Hall Law: <http://law.shu.edu/About/Directions.cfm>

If you choose to drive, daily parking is available on a first come, first served basis at the LAZ Parking Garage located at 42 Mulberry Street, Newark, NJ 07102, which is adjacent to the law school. After parking, go to the elevator and select Level C. Turn right as you exit the elevator, walk through the pedestrian courtyard, and the Law School entrance is on the left. (Please note that the law school does not own the parking garage and is unable to guarantee availability.)

Registration: Registration and a light continental breakfast will begin at 8:30 a.m., and the conference will begin promptly at 9:00 a.m. (you may want to anticipate rush-hour traffic in the Newark area). We are including a copy of the complete program agenda at the bottom of this email (you also may access it here: <https://law.shu.edu/docsnoncommonspot/events/shls-leg-circuit-review-final-agenda-february-2018.pdf>).

After checking in with security at the main entrance, you will proceed to registration in the Atrium. The symposium will take place in the Larson Auditorium on the third floor of the law school. Due to high demand, we will stream a live video feed from the conference to an overflow room, Room 273. When you arrive, please be sure to move to the middle of the aisles to make room for others.

Cancellations: This is a catered event, and we need a final headcount for breakfast and lunch. If you have registered but are unable to attend, please let us know by February 20 by emailing healthlaw@shu.edu or calling [REDACTED]

Networking Lunch: As we mentioned in an earlier email, we would like to facilitate networking and the discussion of specific ideas among conference attendees during our lunch break. Tables will have signs identifying different topics that relate to the conference agenda. We will be organizing table topics by broad themes to help with the flow of foot traffic. Tables will be clustered around the broad theme to help attendees find a relevant topic and navigate the space in the most efficient way. If you have not responded to the survey sent late last week, please select your top choice of broad category through the following survey link (<https://goo.gl/forms/mGkawsZKiMH9ITMY2>) to help us allocate tables and topics. We will provide additional information regarding table topics and locations with your registration materials on Thursday.

NJ/PA CLE: If you have requested CLE, the full program will award 5.0 New Jersey and 4.5 Pennsylvania CLE credit hours. Please be sure to sign in and out of the conference to receive credit.

Program website: CLE materials will* be available electronically to all program participants.

- To access the materials electronically, please go to <http://law.shu.edu/jscl> and login using the following credentials:
 - username: journals (case sensitive)
 - password: Cle!201718js (case sensitive)

We will provide Wi-Fi login information at conference check-in.

(*Please note: The symposium materials are in the process of being uploaded to the conference website.)

Videotaping: We will be videotaping the symposium from the back of the room for the benefit of our weekend students, who are unable to attend. We will place the recording on an internal only web site that only our students may access using a login and password. We will delete questions or comments by anyone who did not consent to being photographed or recorded during the symposium when they registered. If you need to update your consent, please email healthlaw@shu.edu or speak to symposium staff during registration on Thursday.

Please let us know if you have any additional questions about the conference. We are looking forward to your participation!

Dear Chief DiBella,

Thank you for your thoughtful invitation to address the "Chiefs Convention" on the morning of Tuesday, June 26.

I am honored and look forward to sharing our thoughts as to addiction and reentry. It is a particular honor considering Chief Buzby will be assuming the prestigious mantle of leadership. Thank you also for including John Brogan on your agenda; no one has worked harder in the trenches to save individual lives during the scourge of this opioid crisis.

Again, I look forward to being with you on June 26.

Be safe, be well.

The White House opioid summit provides optimism

BEHAVIORAL HEALTHCARE EXECUTIVE, March 2, 2018

by Ron Manderscheid, PhD, Exec Dir, NACBHDD and NARMH

On Thursday, I had the opportunity to participate in the White House Opioid Summit held in the East Room. This event represented the very first time that the administration has described its strategy for addressing the opioid tragedy. A workable national strategy is essential because opioid addiction has evolved into a major public health emergency during the past several years.

The written welcome from President Trump set the tone, "My Administration is committed to fighting the drug epidemic and to helping to get treatment for those in need—for those who have been so terribly hurt. Too many families and communities in America have been affected by this terrible affliction. It is robbing so many of their potential. But we can and will break the cycle, and your tireless efforts motivate us to keep up the fight."

Welcome

Chad Scanlon

John Brogan

Joe Coronato

Excellent! Imprinting a dog on a new substance is relatively easy and requires minimal time in house as long as the training aid is safely available. I'm interested in finding out whether synthetic training aids were used for safety reasons. Agencies in other parts of the country and all over the world including our military and federal agencies have been using proven reliable synthetic training aids such as Scent Logix for quite some time but NJ has been behind the times getting on board. The use of these eliminates the need to handle and keep real CDS for training purposes. I look forward to reading up on this. Thank you for your interest.

Chief Buzby – My apologies for the delay in getting back to you. Please see Mac's email below. He can connect you to trainers in New Jersey.

Cynthia –

Two things.

1) CBP uses fentanyl from actual seizures — not stimulants — and we do it very safely. Our labs have not yet been able to sufficiently replicate the odor of the variety of analogues that we encounter.

2) We have dozens of trainers in the field — including in New Jersey — who are happy to help local agencies train their dogs to alert on fentanyl. I'm happy to help connect them.

I just noticed a typo in my message...autocorrect changed "simulants" to "stimulants." Either way, CBP is using fentanyl and fentanyl analogues from seizures we've made to accurately represent the odors that are prevalent in each operating environment (e.g. Southwest Border, international mail, express consignment).

Happy to make the connection with our Canine Program Managers.

Saturday after 12pm is also good

Hello again Rich - just some follow up: the Governor is definitely out for the Conference and Banquet.

The AG is out for Banquet, but IN for the morning of the 26th. He wants to speak at 11:30. So it is even more important for McGreevey et al to be brief and start right on time, so there is also time for Jon Parham's presentation.

Personally, I would leave out the reference to Mitch. Although a genuine gesture, he is intensely private.

Also, don't forget this message will be in a pamphlet style booklet handed out at the conference. The time to collaborate with Nancy will have long passed.

Here is a start (DRAFT ONLY):

WELCOME TO THE 106TH ANNUAL TRAINING CONFERENCE

It is an honor and a pleasure for the Ocean County Association of Chiefs of Police to host the New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police 106th Annual Training Conference. We have planned an exciting and meaningful week for those in attendance.

The conference will begin on Monday, June 25th at 7pm. We will start the Host Chief's Night at the Landshark Bar & Grill, which is located on the Boardwalk in front of Resorts (between the Boardwalk and the Atlantic Ocean - "the sand side of the boardwalk".) The Landshark provides a spectacular view of the Atlantic Ocean. Suggested dress is casual (shorts, sandals, etc.).

We have four professional seminars for the morning presentations: On Tuesday, June 26th, Fmr NJ Gov Jim McGreevey, along with John Brogan and OC Prosecutor Joe Coronato will present on addiction, treatment & reentry. This will be followed by Ret Chief Jon Parham on "Lessons from the Storm" on his Linden experiences. This will be followed by a brief presentation by NJ Attorney General Gurbir Grewal.

On Wednesday, June 27th, retired Milwaukee Chief (and one of my personal heroes) Ed Flynn will present "Press Relations v. Agency Missions and Maintaining Community Relationships" followed by Dr. Maurizo Migletta's presentation on "How to save lives" after shootings and traumatic events.

The spouses event will take place on Tuesday, June 26th from 11:30am until 12:30pm on the casino floor of Resorts for a professional painting seminar, to be followed by a wine tasting and a private luncheon. My wife, Nancy, is looking to collaborate with the spouses on this event. Her email is NADarragh@aol.com.

The 106th Annual Installation Banquet will take place on Wednesday, June 27th. The evening will begin at 6pm with a cocktail reception, followed by the banquet dinner. At this event we will present our NJ Police Chiefs Foundation "Valor Award." Chief Flynn will again commit briefly followed by our Keynote Speaker for the evening, Retired US Navy Admiral Mark Buzby, recently confirmed by the US Senate as the Administrator for the US Maritime Administration for President Trump.

Please join us in our continuing prayers for the swift recovery of our Executive Director Mitchell Sklar, who was the victim of a recent serious accident. On behalf of Mitch, the Ocean County Chiefs Association, the NJSACOP Board of Officers and the entire NJSACOP Staff we thank you for attending and welcome you to our 106th Annual Training Conference.

Each year, the NJSACOP convenes the organization's largest and most important event - the Annual Training Conference and Police/Security Expo.

The Conference combines prominent speakers and training professionals, high-profile incident reviews, and valuable leadership insights for the police executive with social functions, highlighted by the Installation Banquet.

The Annual Conference is also a time to learn, share ideas, establish a communications network, and renew friendships.

The emotional high point of the Installation Banquet is the NJ Police Chiefs Foundation Valor Awards, presented to law enforcement officers and civilians who have gone over and above the call of duty to help their fellow citizens at the peril of their own safety or even life.

The Annual Police/Security Expo is one of the largest law enforcement-related tradeshows in North America. Over 650 vendors and 7,500 attendees converge on the Atlantic City Convention Center for two days to view and tryout the latest in tools, technology, hardware and software for the police and security professional.
